STATEMENT OF EXPECTATION

2021/2022 SANTA FE RODEO ROYALTY

I, _____, have competed in the 2021 Queen's Contest for Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty Contest and have won the title of _____.

My title and reign will begin on Saturday June 24th, 2023 and end on Saturday June 22nd, 2023.

I understand I will wear my sash and/or crown with a long sleeved, collared shirt at all functions where I represent Rodeo de Santa Fe Royalty. I will conduct myself at all times in a polite and courteous manner which will reflect well on Santa Fe. I will attend all functions as directed by the Queen Coordinator.

I understand I will not be reimbursed for expenses associated with my title, as Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty. I will provide my own horse and transportation to all performances of Rodeo de Santa Fe or any other functions I attend as a representative for Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty. I understand I may be removed from office and forfeit all prizes, and benefits for conduct unbecoming as Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty.

I further acknowledge it is inappropriate to approach Board Members directly myself about budget matters, expenses, or gifts associated with my title and that such inquiries should be directed to the Queen Coordinators. I also acknowledge it is inappropriate to engage in public displays of affection with boyfriends, such as holding hands, etc., I will take caution with FB, Twitter, etc. during the year I hold my title.

Parents must sign waivers for girls under the age of 18. The itinerary and schedule for the contest will be given as we get closer to the contest.

Parents and supporters are invited. Cameras are OK. Order of go for the contests will be drawn randomly.

This contest has two parts, scored by the judges at 50% each for personality and horsemanship. Please ask any questions you might have prior to beginning each segment of the contest. Judges' decisions are final.

A. For personality segment, each girl should have a Modern-day western outfit, this may include western dress, skirt, pants, all accompanied with cowboy hat, and boots. All shirts or tops must be long sleeved. and collared. Each Queen and Princess candidate will give a 3-minute memorized speech about herself or Santa Fe, and what inspires her the most. There will then be a brief modeling session. Each girl will answer impromptu questions and have a brief personal interview with the judges. Questions can range from application, speech, PRCA rodeo, animal welfare, Santa Fe, current news, etc.

B. Following the personality phase of the contest, (This is subject to change) we will move on to the Horsemanship portion of the contest. There will be three phases for this part.

1. Horsemanship pattern - (provided in application packet) Dressed in long sleeved white shirts, Scarves or jewelry accents is allowed, black or blue Wrangler jeans (PRCA sponsor) and cowboy hat. Secure your hat to your head (Royalty never lose their hats). Once set pattern is finished Trot over to the judges stop and dismount for additional questions, re-mount and exit arena.

(The judges reserve the right to ask for additional tasks i.e., swapping horses, verbal patterns, etc.)

2. Free style ride of your choosing.

Do not exceed 2 minutes. Be creative, show yourself and your horses' strengths and abilities. (Bareback riding, Roman riding, barrel/pole patterns will not be allowed as well as no music.)

3. Queen's run, keeping your horse controlled, waving, and smiling. Flag run. Be sure your horse can safely carry a flag prior to the contest.

Santa Fe Rodeo
Queen and Princess Contest
Rules and Regulations

The following rules and regulations will apply to ALL contestants in the Santa Fe Rodeo Queen and Princess Contest.

1. Any female who is a Santa Fe County resident or resides within a 100-mile radius of Santa Fe County, between the ages of 13-25 years of age. The contestant has never been married and is childless. Candidate must agree to remain single and childless until the end of her reign. Should marriage or pregnancy occur during her reign, the title and all awards will automatically be relinquished to the First Alternate.
2. Contestants should wear western attire. This may include western dress, skirts, pants, and jeans. All outfits must be accompanied by a cowboy hat and boots. All shirts or tops must be long sleeved and collared.
3. Judging will be on personality, appearance, horsemanship, style, and grace. If a tie should occur, the break will be based on a high score for the Horsemanship portion of the contest. This tie breaker is for the overall Title, NOT each category. Decision of the Judge(s) is final.
4. The Queen and Princess will be expected to act and represent themselves appropriately always during their reign when representing Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty. Inappropriate conduct may include but is not limited to smoking, drinking alcohol, use of illegal and/or non-prescribed drugs, fighting, or the use of profanity or being disrespectful to any member of our board or any other board or official in where you are attending a rodeo. Inappropriate behavior may result in the title being pulled with or without warning.
5. The Queen and Princess must be available for Rodeo de Santa Fe events year-round per the coordinator, sometimes with short notice, the entire week of Rodeo de Santa Fe in June, Rodeo and Fair promotion activities. Representation at said events will be mandatory. If the Queen and Princess are unable to attend, they must communicate with the coordinator in advance. All events will be coordinated with the Queen Coordinator.
6. The queen and or Princess can find events for them to attend as well after discussing with the coordinator.

Santa Fe Rodeo
Queen and Princess Responsibilities

The following responsibilities will apply to the Santa Fe Rodeo Royalty Court. Any violations may result in the title being pulled with all awards and will automatically relinquish to the First Alternate.

1. A. The Queen is responsible for representing the Rodeo de Santa Fe and any other events which may come up throughout the year. Including but not limited to PRCA Rodeos around the states.

B. The Princess will represent at all local events along side the Queen and if necessary when the Queen is traveling to other PRCA Rodeo's
2. Royalty court will consist of the reigning Queen & Princess. When wearing the sash and/or crown the Queen/Princess MUST be in proper Western Attire.
3. The Queen and Princess will represent Rodeo de Santa Fe at the following events in full dress code:
